

APBM CODE OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS 2006 CABM Recertification Cycle

CABMs, in good standing, must adhere to the following Code of Professional Ethics:

1. The business professional must have honesty and integrity in dealing with his/her employers, coworkers, customers, vendors, contractors, suppliers, consultants, and other business partners. He or she will avoid situations involving conflicts of interest.
2. The business professional must seek goal congruence in that his/her personal goals must blend with his/her organization's goals.
3. The business professional must be objective and prudent in making decisions during the course of traditional business as well as electronic business transactions.
4. The business professional must keep his/her organization's sensitive business information confidential and not share this information with others for either personal or financial gain.
5. The business professional must not compromise his/her ethical values and standards and must not be a party to illegal or unauthorized business transactions.

I hereby agree to abide by the Code of Professional Ethics as set forth by APBM.
